65. Any member of the Maryland national guard who shall wilfully and unlawfully misapply or convert to his own use any money or other property belonging to said national guard or any organization thereof, or who shall, when lawfully called upon to do so by the proper officer of the said guard, fail or refuse to pay or deliver to said officer any money or property in his possession, or for which the said member was chargeable or accountable, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or sentenced to imprisonment in jail for a period not exceeding one year, or he shall be both fined or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 67.

66. Orders for duty may be oral or written. Officers and enlisted men may be warned for duty as follows: Either by stating the substance of the order or by reading the order to the person warned, or delivering a copy of such order to such person, or by leaving a copy of such order at the last known place of abode or business, or by mailing to the postoffice nearest thereto. Such warning may be given by any officer or non-commissioned officer. The officer or non-commissioned officer giving such notice or warning shall, if required, make a return thereof containing the names of the person warned, and the time, place and manner of warning, if required by the officer issuing the order; such return may be verified by his oath, which may be administered by any commanding officer. Such verified returns shall be as good evidence on the trial of any person returned as a delinquent of the facts therein stated as if such officer or non-commissioned officer had testified to the same before the delinquency court on such trial. Every commanding officer shall make the like return, on honor and with like effect, of every delinquency or neglect of duty of his officers or non-commissioned officers, and also of every enlisted man who shall refuse or neglect to perform such military duty as may be required.

1908, ch. 103, sec. 68.
